Accessibility

The Chicago Transit Authority (CTA) runs bus and rail services throughout the region serving Chicago and its suburbs. Four separate systems operate throughout the region: the CTA (bus and red rail), Pace (buses and green rail), Metra (commuter rail), and North Central Service (shuttle services). The CTA and Pace systems are accessible. Metra and North Central Service offer ramp access and make accommodations in operators’ discretion. For more information, please visit CTA’s website and contact the appropriate agency for more information.

CTA, Metra and Pace Fares

CTA and Pace fares vary depending on the distance traveled and the type of service used. CTA and Pace operate on a Zone-based fare system, with fares varying by distance traveled. For more information, please visit the CTA and Pace websites.

NICTD (South Shore Line) Fares

South Shore Line fares are based on distance traveled. There are four basic fare zones, with fares varying by distance.
